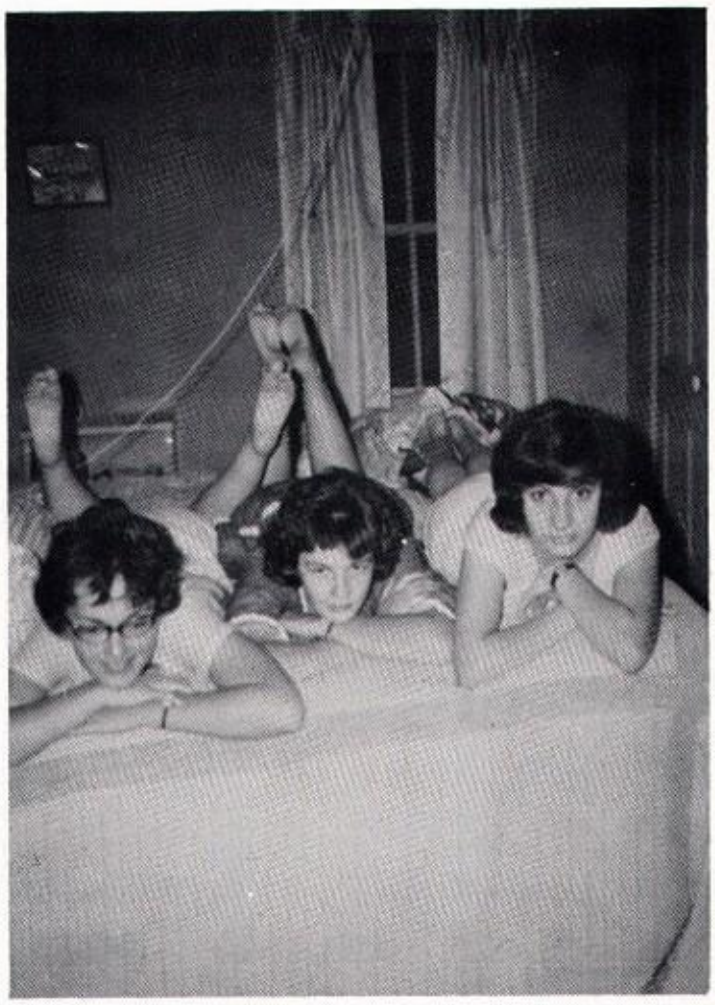
EXCHANGE STUDENT

ANA MARIA OLIVERA



Three in a bed.

Ana Maria, our present exchange student at Biglerville, hails from Montevideo, Uruguay, where her father is a real estate agent. She has a younger brother, Julio Cesar. Ana arrived by plane in Miami at the end of August. She finally got to her "home" with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Fox of Bendersville the day before school began.

Ana studied English for four years at the Uruguayan Center of English Studies using the Whitaker method. She also speaks French and Italian. During the school year in Uruguay, Ana studies very hard for the comprehensive examinations held in the Spring. All summer, however, she relaxes at the famous seaside resort of Piriapolis.

Ana has enjoyed many new experiences in America; such as snow and ice skating. Football and basketball games were very exciting for her. She has grown to like American foods, especially fried chicken and her "mother's" desserts.

As a member of the Senior class Ana is studying English, American history, P. O. D. and economics, advanced math and typing.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

I 1959 - 60

In 1959 we were "Fun-loving Freshmen." We felt terribly important when we looked back to those two years as lowly 7th and 8th graders, but when we looked ahead we saw we still had a long way to go before that time when we would be Seniors. In band, choir, Honor Society, clubs, Jr. High Student Council, and sports we showed our enthusiasm and boundless energy. One highlight of the year was the trip to the County Court House as part of our Civics course. Under President Richard Dull and Advisor Miss Lupp, we began our march to Seniordom.

II 1960 - 61

As "Silly Sophomores" we began to wonder where we would ever find money for our Prom by the next year. With Jim Oyler as president and Mr. Laird as advisor we dug in and busily sold candy at noon and at football and basketball games to raise the needed funds. In class we all began serious study in the curriculum each had chosen.

III 1961 - 62

Our first big thrill as "Jolly Juniors" was receiving our class rings in the fall. Justifiably proud, we showed them to anyone who would look. By selling hot dogs and popcorn at games and picking apples in the fall we considerably increased our treasury. For one hectic week we feverishly worked to transform the gym into "Moonlight Gardens" by bringing inside the out-of-doors. Gary Bream, our president, and Mr. White, our advisor, were proud of the fine job the class had done.

IV 1962 - 63

The Year finally arrived. At last we were Seniors. With great enthusiasm we threw ourselves into the task of earning enough money to send us to New York. By selling coffee and cokes at games, picking apples, selling candy and school jackets we finally secured the needed sum. We found time, between other activities, to present "Dear Diary" as our Senior play, and the Angels Few battled the Devil's Dozen in a rousing girls' football game. With Jim Oyler again at our head, we tried to combat "Senior-itis," but we were not always successful.

We, the Class of 1963, wish to express our gratitude and appreciation to all those who have taught and guided us through our unforgettable years at B. H. S. To all future classes we wish all of the success and happiness that we have known.

Now we turn our faces forward, confident that the preparation we have received at B. H. S. will be our firm foundation for the future.

SENIOR HUMOR

Miss Roche: "Weasel, what are you going to do for a living after graduation?"
Weasel: "Me? I'm going to make a fortune."
Miss Roche: "How's that?"
Weasel: "I'm going to buy old wells, saw them up and sell them for post holes!"

* * *

Tina: "Do you know what it is to go before an audience?"
Connie: "No. I spoke before an audience once, but most of it went before I did."

* * *

"And this, I suppose, is one of those hideous caricatures you call modern art?"
"Nope, that's just a mirror."

* * *

"Is a duck big enough to eat when it's two weeks old?"
"Of course not!"
"Then how in the world does it manage to live?"

* * *

"Papa, where were you born?"
"New York."
"Where was Mamma born?"
"In Los Angeles."
"And where was I born?"
"In Adams County."
"Sure is funny how we three people get together, isn't it?"

* * *

Mr. Sheats: "Tom, how many days are there in a year?"
Tom: "Three hundred and sixty-five and a fourth."
Mr. Sheats: "Now how can there be a fourth of a day?"
Tom: "Well, there's the Fourth of July!"

* * *

Kitty: "Have you noticed Phyllis' new bathing suit?"
Buck: "No. What does it look like?"
Kitty: "In most places it's a lot like Phyllis."

* * *

"I suppose all geniuses are conceited."
"Some of them — but I'm not."

Girl: "This is an ideal spot for a picnic."
Jim: "It must be. Fifty million insects can't be wrong."

* * *

Dutch: "A fellow told me I looked like you."
George: "What did you say?"
Dutch: "Nothing. He was a lot bigger than I was."

* * *

A man feeling a bit fed up with life decided to commit suicide by hanging himself. A friend came into the room and discovered him standing with a rope around his waist, and he inquired what he was trying to do. The man told him he was taking his own life.

"But," said his friend, "why have you got the rope around your waist?"

"Well," said the man, "when I tied it around my neck it was choking me!"

To discover whether a duck is a male or female, just tell it a joke.
If he laughs, it's a male.
If she laughs, it's a female.

Tom Heck: "I dreamed last night that I had invented a new type of breakfast food and was sampling it when —"
Buddy: "Yea, yea, go on."
Tom: "I woke up and found a corner of the mattress gone!"

* * *

Barber: "How would you like your hair cut, sir?"
Dick P.: "Off!"

* * *

Bev: "For goodness sake, use both hands when you drive me home tonight."
Bill: "I can't, I have to steer with one."

A city girl was vacationing in the country and became friendly with a farm boy. One evening as they were strolling across a pasture they saw a cow and calf rubbing noses in the moon-lit night.

"Ah," said the farmer boy, "that sight makes me want to do the same."

"Well, go ahead," said the girl, "it's your cow."

Varsity Football

The varsity football team of 1962 got off to a good start in their first season in the Blue Mountain League by compiling a 5-4-1 record. The team got off to a slow start, but soon evened their record with several victories. The highlight of the season came when the Canners won a convincing 19-0 victory over the favored Shippensburg team in the last game of the season.

Canners on the Blue Mountain League All-Star Team include: Second team—Bill Slaybaugh, Jim Mickey, and Jeff Horick. Honorable mention—Bob Bream, Joe Hartman, and Mike Kane.

Track

In the last season of the South Penn League, the Canners had a mediocre season with a record of 3 wins and 4 losses. The team had several close meets, including a heart-breaking loss to intra-county rival Gettysburg.

In the South Penn Meet the Canners had winners in four events. Dick Dull placed first in the javelin and third in the high hurdles, while Barry Trostel took first place in the high jump. Dave Slonaker also captured third place in the pole vault.

In the Shippensburg Invitation Meet, Dick Dull took first place in the javelin, and John Byerly placed third in the 880.

School records set in 1962 are:

Baseball

Because of South Penn competition, the varsity baseball team had slightly lower than average season in 1962, finishing with a 4-7 record. Despite the loss of experienced players at key positions, the outlook for 1963 in the Blue Mountain League is very promising.
